2. 대화를 듣고, 여자의 의견으로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

W: Good morning, Chris.

M: Good morning, Julie. How was your weekend?

W: It was wonderful. I went to an event called Stargazing Night with my 7-year-old son.

M: Oh, so you went outdoors to look up at stars. Your son must have had a great time.

W: Yes. And I think it helped my son become familiar with mathematical concepts.

M: Interesting! How does it do that?

W: By counting the stars together, my son had a chance to practice counting to high numbers.

M: Ah, that makes sense.

W: Also, he enjoyed identifying shapes and tracing patterns that stars form together.

M: Sounds like you had a magical and mathematical night!

W: Absolutely. I think looking at stars is a good way for kids to get used to mathematical concepts.

M: Maybe I should take my daughter to the event next time.

3. 대화를 듣고, 두 사람의 관계를 가장 잘 나타낸 것을 고르시오.

M: Hello, Ms. Watson. Thank you for accepting my interview request.
W: My pleasure. You must be Michael from Windmore High School.
M: Yes. I'm honored to interview the person who designed the school I'm attending.
W: Thank you. I'm very proud of that design.
M: What was the concept behind it?
W: When planning the design of the school building, I wanted to incorporate elements of nature into it.
M: I see. Did you apply this concept in any other building designs?
W: Yes. Skyforest Tower. My design included mini gardens for each floor and a roof-top garden, making the building look like a rising forest.
M: That's impressive. Actually, my art teacher is taking us on a field trip there next week.
W: Really? Make sure to visit the observation deck on the 32nd floor. The view is spectacular.
M: Thanks. I'll check it out with my classmates.

4. 대화를 듣고, 그림에서 대화의 내용과 일치하지 않는 것을 고르시오.

W: Wow, Sam. You turned the student council room into a hot chocolate booth.
M: Yes, Ms. Thompson. We're ready to sell hot chocolate to raise money for children in need.
W: Excellent. What are you going to put on the bulletin board under the clock?
M: I'll post information letting people know where the profits will go.
W: Good. I like the banner on the wall.
M: Thanks. I designed it myself.
W: Awesome. Oh, I'm glad you put my stripe-patterned tablecloth on the table.
M: Thanks for letting us use it. Did you notice the snowman drawing that's hanging on the tree?
W: Yeah. I remember it was drawn by the child you helped last year. By the way, there are three boxes on the floor. What are they for?
M: We're going to fill those up with donations of toys and books.
W: Sounds great. Good luck.

5. 대화를 듣고, 남자가 여자를 위해 할 일로 가장 적절한 것을 고르시오.

M: Hi, Mary. You look worried. What's the matter?

W: Hi, Steve. Remember the report about wildflowers I've been working on?

M: Of course. That's for your biology class, right?

W: Yeah. I was able to get pictures of all the wildflowers in my report except for daisies.

M: I see. Can't you submit your report without pictures of daisies?

W: No. I really need them. I even tried to take pictures of daisies myself, but I found out that they usually bloom from spring to fall.

M: You know what? This spring, I went hiking with my dad and took some pictures of wildflowers.

W: Do you have them on your phone? Can I see them?

M: Sure. Have a look.

W: Oh, the flowers in the pictures are daisies! These will be great for my report.

M: Really? Then I'll send them to you.

W: Thanks. That would be very helpful.

W: Can I use this 10% discount coupon?

M: Sure, you can.

W: Fantastic. And is it possible to stay one more night?

M: Let me check. [Mouse clicking sound] Yes, the same room is available for tomorrow.

W: Good. Do I get a discount for the second night, too?

M: Sorry. The coupon doesn't apply to the second night. It'll be $100. Do you still want to stay an extra night?

W: Yes, I do.

M: Great. Will you and your husband have breakfast? It's $10 per person for each day.

W: No thanks. We'll be going out early to go shopping. Here's my credit card.

M: How was your day?

W: Alright. Hey, did you order something? There's a large box outside the door.

M: It's the tent we bought online for our camping trip. I'm returning it.

W: Is it because of the size? I remember you said it might be a little small to fit all of us.

M: Actually, when I set up the tent, it seemed big enough to hold us all.

W: Then, did you find a cheaper one on another website?

M: No, price is not the issue.

W: Then, why are you returning the tent?

M: It's too heavy to carry around. We usually have to walk a bit to get to the campsite.

W: I see. Is someone coming to pick up the box?

M: Yes. I already scheduled a pickup.

M: Well, I went there yesterday and it was amazing.

W: What does the museum exhibit?

M: It exhibits numerous failed products from the world's best-known companies.

W: Interesting. That makes me curious about the purpose of founding the museum.

M: It was founded to deliver the message that we need to admit our failures to truly succeed.

W: That's quite a message, and it makes a lot of sense. Did it just open?

M: No, it opened in 2001.

W: How come I've never heard of it?

M: I guess many people don't know about it. But visiting the museum was an eye-opening experience.

W: Where is it?

M: Sure. [Pause] These bamboo ones seem good. They're made from natural materials.

W: That's true, but I'm worried they may not dry quickly.

M: Okay. Then let's look at straws made from other materials. How much are you willing to spend on a set of straws?

W: I don't want to spend more than $10.

M: That's reasonable. How about length?

W: To use with my tumbler, eight or nine inches should be perfect.

M: Then you're down to these two. A carrying case would be very useful when going out.

W: I remember you saying that before.

M: Yeah. I'd still like to somehow express my thanks in person.

Today, Ben notices that his tomatoes will be ready to be picked in about a week. However, he leaves for a month-long business trip tomorrow. M: Hello, students. Last time, I gave you a list of English expressions containing color terms. Today, we'll learn how these expressions got their meanings. The first expression is "out of the blue," meaning something happens unexpectedly. It came from the phrase "a lightning bolt out of the blue," which expresses the idea that it's unlikely to see lightning when there's a clear blue sky. The next expression, "white lie," means a harmless lie to protect someone from a harsh truth. This is because the color white traditionally symbolizes innocence. Another expression, "green thumb," refers to a great ability to cultivate plants. Planting pots were often covered with tiny green plants, so those who worked in gardens had green-stained hands. The last expression, "to see red," means to suddenly get very angry. Its origin possibly comes from the belief that bulls get angry and attack when a bullfighter waves a red cape. I hope this lesson helps you remember these phrases better.
